

Literacy Homework

Week of 1/13/14- 1/17/14

Due: Monday, January 20, 2014

Honors Academy of Literature Families,

Welcome back from winter vacation! This week will be doing a lot of review and getting back into routine. I'll also be assessing each student individually. If you have any questions, please contact me!

Thank you,

Ms. Miranda

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Read for 20 minutes Read "Who Needs a Cook?" Remember to use expression and to read the punctuation!	Read for 20 minutes Read "Who Needs a Cook?" Remember to use expression and to read the punctuation!	Read for 20 minutes Read "Who Needs a Cook?" Remember to use expression and to read the punctuation!	Read for 20 minutes Read "Who Needs a Cook?" Remember to use expression and to read the punctuation!	Read for 20 minutes Read "Who Needs a Cook?" Remember to use expression and to read the punctuation!
This week your heart words are where's, we'll, It's, and we're. Have a parent call out your words. Only practice the words you misspell.	Silly Sentences Use your heart words to write 3 silly sentences.	Tracing Words Write your words on wax paper with an expo marker or Trace your words in household materials (salt, flour, etc.)	Have your parent call out your heart words so you're ready for your test on Friday.	Put your homework in your boomerang folder so it's ready to turn in on Monday.
Initials: _____	Initials: _____	Initials: _____	Initials: _____	Initials: _____