

Literacy Homework

Week: March 9, 2015 – March 13, 2015

Name: _____

Due: Monday, March 16, 2015

Hello HAL Families,

This week we will be writing the final draft of our Duck on a Bike Stories and beginning the prewriting stage of our animal reports. Please have your scholar return their PBS forms for the writing contest by Wednesday, March 11.

Thank you,

Ms. Miranda

Day	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Reading	Read for 20 minutes.	Read for 20 minutes.	Read for 20 minutes.	Read for 20 minutes.	Read for 20 minutes.
Fluency	Model read “Once upon a northern night” with a parent, older sibling, or guardian. Model Read: Parent, Sibling, or Guardian reads poem aloud	Echo read “Once upon a northern night” with a parent, older sibling, or guardian. Echo Reading: You read a line, scholar reads a line	Choral read “Once upon a northern night” with a parent, older sibling, or guardian. Choral Reading: Read together at the same time	Read “Once upon a northern night.” Draw a picture to accompany the poem.	Read “Once upon a northern night.” What did you like about the poem? What didn’t you like? Why?
Word Work	Go over your words with a parent/guardian. What do the words mean? Cut and sort your words. If you have the same sort, discuss the category/pattern you’re struggling with.	Sort Explanation: After you sort your words, write down a few sentences explaining how your categories are similar and different. Attach to homework sheet.	Sort Game: Play Memory with your sort. Remember words that are in the same category/pattern are matches.	Pretest: Review your categories and spelling patterns. Have a parent/guardian call out your words while you write them down.	Sort and glue your words onto a sheet of paper. Please attach to homework sheet.
Parent/Guardian Initials

Once Upon a Northern Night

Jean E. Pendziwol

Once upon a northern night,
deep,
deep
in the darkest hours,
the snowy clouds crept away and stars appeared – twinkling points of light hanging in the purple sky.